ENGL 1101 Section 02 (80206)

English Composition I

2026 Fall

Course Description and Prerequisites

Co-Requisite: ENGL 0999 A composition course focusing on skills required for effective writing in a variety of contexts, with emphasis on exposition, analysis, and argumentation, and also including introductory use of a variety of research skills.

Core IMPACTS

This course is part of Core IMPACTS.

Core IMPACTS consists of seven core curriculum domains (previously identified as areas A-E). Each Core IMPACTS domain is designed around a specific orienting question (goal or topic), learning outcomes, and career-ready competencies.

IMPACTS Domain: Communicating in Writing

IMPACTS Statement: This is a Core IMPACTS course that is part of the Communicating in Writing domain.

Orienting Question(s): How do I write effectively in different contexts?

Learning Outcome(s): 1) Students will communicate effectively in writing, demonstrating clear organization and structure, using appropriate grammar and writing conventions. 2) Students will appropriately acknowledge the use of materials from original sources. 3) Students will adapt their written communications to purpose and audience. 4) Students will analyze and draw informed inferences from written texts.

Career-Ready Competencies: Critical Thinking, Information Literacy, & Persuasion

Course Outcomes

Upon completion of this course, students will

1. Compose expository writing (e.g. descriptive, process, comparison/contrast, cause/effect, problem/solution) using methods of organization and structure that are clear and appropriate to the form. (IEE 1)
2. Evaluate texts for their purpose, credibility, sufficiency, accuracy, and bias. (IEE 2)
3. Identify rhetorical situations used in expository and/or persuasive writing (purpose, audience, topic, writer, and context). (IEE 2)
4. Practice writing processes, including brainstorming, prewriting, drafting, revising, and reflecting, in academic writing. (IEE 1)

School of Liberal Arts Mission Statement

The School of Liberal Arts (SLA) serves students, the College, and communities throughout the metro Atlanta area through instruction, research, service, and performance in the Arts, Humanities, and Social Sciences.

Online/Proctored Tests

This course requires the use of a proctored testing service/software such as Respondus LockDown Browser, Respondus Monitor, or ProctorU, and a webcam for online exams. The webcam can be built into your computer or can be the type that plugs in with a USB cable. The software may require you to scan the room in which you are taking the test with your webcam. The video of the room scan is only available to me, as well as appropriate IT staff and administrators.

If you are at home and have privacy concerns about a webcam scan of your surroundings, you can take the test anywhere you feel comfortable. If you cannot identify such a place, contact me before the date of the test to arrange for a separate room on campus for testing.

Web Conferencing

This course will use Zoom for video conferencing sessions and collaboration activities.

Some or all of the sessions may be recorded. Recordings may be shared in accordance with recording_guidelines.

Required Course Materials

All required readings and materials for this course will be provided at no cost; no textbook or additional purchases are necessary.

Course Grading

You can expect to access the course materials and grades via our course in MyCourses (Brightspace by D2L). Students should check this MyCourses (Brightspace by D2L) course daily, as changes will always be announced and recorded on the course site about your grading policies.

Late Work Policy

Late work will be accepted with deductions up to 50% for a couple days past the due date. However, if you contact me at least 24 hours before an assignment is due and request an extension, I will usually grant it with an extension depending on the circumstances. Always communicate with me prior to an assignment due date if you have questions or trouble completing the assignment on time, but please keep in mind that sending such an email may not absolve you of your responsibilities for completing the assignment as directed. If you're ever unsure if something posted, you can always email me a document as a backup.

Assessment Tools

There are 3 major essays for this class alongside additional work, such as quizzes and discussions. Each essay has a review and reflection.

Course Changes

This course syllabus provides a general plan for this course. I reserve the right to make changes to the syllabus, including changes to assignments, projects, examinations, etc., in order to accommodate the needs of the class as a whole and fulfill the goals of the course.

Expectations

To be successful in this course, you should:

- Read the syllabus in its entirety.
- Attend class daily.
- Arrive on time.
- Be prepared (complete readings and assignments) to engage in class discussions.
- Stow your devices or set them to silent to minimize disruptions.
- Check MyCourses each day for announcements, content, discussions, assignments, tests, grades, and more.
- Respond to my emails (check Claw Mail daily) in a timely manner using appropriate language and grammar.
- Use my office hours or schedule appointments to discuss concerns.
- Familiarize yourself with the Student Honor Statement:

We will not lie, steal, or cheat, nor tolerate the actions of those who do.

To support your success, I will:

- Provide office hours or appointment options in the Faculty Information section of the syllabus.
- Respond to your emails in a timely manner (see the Faculty Information section of the syllabus).
- Provide feedback and grades in a timely manner.
- Assist you with locating and engaging with resources provided by the college. This syllabus includes some suggestions. Keep reading for details.

Academic Integrity

GGC students are expected to demonstrate integrity and honesty in their courses and to complete work according to my expectations. You are responsible for avoiding every aspect or appearance of academic dishonesty. While it is impossible to list all acts of academic dishonesty, examples are listed below. Additional details on academic integrity are found in the GGC Academic Policy Manual, Academic Integrity Policy for Academic Dishonesty Matters \(Policy 4.1.1.1.2\).

Academic Dishonesty. Examples of specific prohibited actions include, but are not limited to, the following:

1. Academic Misconduct: Performing, attempting to perform, or assisting another in performing any act of academic dishonesty.
2. Cheating: This act of dishonesty includes, but is not limited to, giving information to or taking information from other students during examinations. Cheating is also committed when students copy from unauthorized sources and/or represent some other person's work as their own. Collaboration on out-of-class assignments or examinations is considered cheating unless specifically stated. The use of Artificial Intelligence ("AI") on any assignment submitted for credit is generally prohibited. See my statement on Artificial Intelligence Use below.
3. Plagiarism: This category includes copying material from unpublished or published sources, including electronic resources, and submitting that material as the student's own work. Students are responsible for identifying the proper source and for giving credit to that source anytime that they present ideas that are not their own.
4. Unauthorized Use or Possession of Materials or Resources: Students must not use or possess unauthorized materials or resources in an academic activity.
5. Collusion: This act of dishonesty includes, but is not limited to, buying or selling material that can be misrepresented as a student's own work. In addition, students who fail to report known acts of academic dishonesty on the part of others may be held responsible for collusion.
6. Previously submitted material: Students may not submit work that has been or is being concurrently submitted, in whole or in part, in another class without first having received permission to do so from all the professors involved.
7. Misrepresentation or falsification of material: This act includes, but is not limited to, misrepresenting, fabricating, or altering academic material. In addition, students must not take an examination or test in the name of another student or present another student's work as their own.
8. Misrepresentation of circumstances: Students must not misrepresent personal circumstances (e.g., illness, conflicting responsibilities, etc.) to avoid meeting academic responsibilities or to gain an academic advantage.

To avoid plagiarism, you must appropriately cite the sources of others' ideas, thoughts, and words that appear in your original work. In addition to requesting assistance from the Academic Enhancement Center, me, or trusted peers, you may use a variety of technologies to improve your writing. These tools, which may include proofreading and editing features of word processing software, do not alter your work to an extent that fundamentally affects your claim to authorship.

I may use the Originality Check feature of Turnitin to see how similar your work is to online sources and to assist you in learning how to cite sources appropriately to avoid potential plagiarism. I may also use applications to detect writing generated by artificial intelligence (AI). Some writing tools use AI to suggest edits, while other AI technologies, such as ChatGPT, are meant to simulate human conversation and produce writing that appears to be authored by a person. Although AI can be used for educational purposes and to develop or improve one's writing, submitting work containing AI-generated text, unless I request or explicitly allow it as part of an assignment, is prohibited. See my statement on Artificial Intelligence Use below.

All violations of the Academic Integrity Policy shall be resolved via the Faculty Adjudication Process and/or the Formal Resolution (Student Conduct Board hearing through the Dean of Students Office) as outlined in the Academic Integrity Policy for Academic Dishonesty Matters \(Policy 4.1.1.1.2\).

Artificial Intelligence

All students should be familiar with the college's policy on Acceptable Use of Artificial Intelligence \(AI\) for Academic and Administrative Purposes and the Academic Integrity Policy for Academic Dishonesty Matters.

For this course, my expectation regarding the use of Artificial Intelligence (AI) is as follows:

The use of artificial-intelligence (AI) tools – including but not limited to text, image, video, or code generators, research assistants, or problem-solving systems – is prohibited unless the instructions for a particular assignment, activity, or assessment state otherwise. Unauthorized use of AI may constitute academic misconduct under the college's Policy on Academic Integrity. If you are unsure whether an action constitutes AI use, ask me before proceeding.

Attendance Policy and Absences

Attendance is a strong indicator of success in this class! Please plan to attend all class sessions and be on time. If you must be absent, please review the college's attendance policy.

It is a best practice to inform me when you must be absent (see my preferred communication method) and discuss the option(s), if any, to make up missed assignments, tests, exams, etc. You do not have to share why you are absent with me directly. If you wish to provide documentation needed for the absence to be considered excused, you may submit this to the Dean of Students, and they will work with you and me.

Complaints and Grade Appeals

If you have course-related issues, please schedule an appointment to meet with me. (See the Faculty Information above for contact details). If we are unable to resolve the issue you may contact the department chair. You may seek further assistance, if needed, through the Dean's office. The college also offers you the option to file a written student complaint.

Final grade appeals may also be filed if you believe there is an error.

The student complaint process and the grade appeal process are both outlined in the Student Handbook.

Learning Resources

The college offers services and resources designed to help you succeed.

Academic Enhancement Center \(AEC\)

The AEC provides in-person tutoring, online tutoring via Tutor.com, and structured study sessions known as Peer Supplemental Instruction (PSI), as well as academic coaches who can advise you on study, test-taking, and time management skills.

Kaufman Library

The Kaufman Library is home to full-text articles, e-books, reports, statistics, and videos. The librarians and library staff are available to assist you with locating resources, research needs, course assignments, and more.

Disability Services

Disability Services provides reasonable accommodations to ensure accessible educational and social environments. If you believe you require an accommodation, initiate a request for services.

Information Technology

You may contact the Help Desk if you experience issues with using the technology needed for this course. Software, including Microsoft Office 365 and Adobe Express, is available for your use in computer labs and classrooms. If you need access to a laptop, the college offers a limited quantity, need-based laptop loaner program.

Access and Accommodations

Access and Accommodations

It is important that all students have equal access to the classroom and their education. If you have already established accommodations with Disability Services, please provide me with your Faculty Accommodation Notification, with your approved accommodations listed at your earliest convenience.

If you have not yet established services through Disability Services (located in D-1404), but have a permanent disability (such as, but not limited to: mental health, attention-related, learning, vision, hearing, physical, or health impacts), or a temporary condition that requires accommodations, you are encouraged to contact Disability Services at 678-407-5195 or disabilityservices@ggc.edu.

Disability Services offers resources and coordinates reasonable accommodations for students with disabilities and/or temporary health conditions. Georgia Gwinnett College is committed to creating an inclusive and accessible learning environment consistent with federal and state law.

Pregnancy and Pregnancy-Related Conditions Accommodations Under Title IX

GGC is committed to compliance with Title IX and to supporting the academic success of pregnant students and students with pregnancy-related conditions (pregnancy, childbirth, loss of pregnancy, lactation, and all related medical conditions or recovery).

Students experiencing pregnancy or pregnancy-related conditions may request reasonable accommodations, including but not limited to excused absences, making up missed assignments, restroom breaks, a larger desk, lactation breaks, access to lactation spaces, etc. To request pregnancy-related accommodations, students should contact the Office of Disability Services (email: disabilityservices@ggc.edu; phone: 678-407-5883) or the Office of Equal Opportunity and Title IX Compliance (email: TitleIX@ggc.edu; phone: 678-407-5085).

Students who believe they have been subject to discrimination or harassment because of their pregnancy status or pregnancy-related condition(s) may file a complaint with the Office of Equal Opportunity and Title IX Compliance.

Well-being and Safety

The college offers many resources and services to support your physical and emotional well-being in a safe environment.

Student Emergency Assistance Programs

Our emergency assistance programs include:

- Care Pantry
Provides food and necessities to students experiencing financial constraints.
- Grizzly Thrift
Provides access to free clothing for students.

Health and Wellness Programs

Health Services offers a variety of services to help you stay well.

- Medical Services
Provides care for minor injuries and illnesses, diagnostic testing, immunizations, and basic over-the-counter medications.
- Counseling and Psychological Services \(CAPS\)
Provides mental health services.
- Wellness and Recreation
Provides workout facilities, fitness classes, and intramural sports.

Disability Services

Disability Services provides reasonable accommodations to ensure accessible educational and social environments. If you require an accommodation, initiate a request for services.

Safety and Security

Public Safety offers many services to help you stay safe on campus, including safety escorts.

You'll want to stay informed about campus closures and other safety-related notifications via Rave Alert.

Grizzly Care Team

The Grizzly Care Team brings together professionals from across the college to help you or other members of the college community who may pose a threat to the safety of the college community or an individual. If you see someone experiencing challenges, appearing distressed, posing a threat to their safety or someone else's safety, or causing a significant disruption to the GGC community, please submit a Grizzly Care Team referral.

Equal Opportunity and Non-Discrimination Statement

Notice of Non-Discrimination

Georgia Gwinnett College is committed to providing a learning, working, and living environment that promotes personal integrity, civility, and mutual respect and is free of all forms of discrimination and harassment. In accordance with applicable law and Georgia Gwinnett College's Non-Discrimination and Anti-Harassment Policy, Georgia Gwinnett College prohibits discrimination on the basis of an individual's race, color, sex (including sexual harassment, marital, parental, and pregnancy status), sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, ethnicity or national origin, religion, age, genetic information, disability, creed, or veteran status ("protected status"), or any other protected status or characteristic as defined by law, in its programs and activities. No individual shall be excluded from participation in, denied the benefits of, or otherwise be subjected to unlawful discrimination, harassment, or retaliation under any GGC program or activity because of the individual's protected status.

Georgia Gwinnett College is an equal employment, equal access, and equal educational opportunity institution. It is the policy and practice of our institution to recruit, hire, train, promote, retain, and educate persons without regard to their protected status, as required by applicable state and federal laws (including Title VI, Title VII, Title IX, ADA, Sections 503 and 504 of the Rehabilitation Act, and Executive Order 11246).

Any individual who feels that they may have been discriminated against should contact the Equal Opportunity and Title IX Compliance office at titleix@ggc.edu or 678-407-5085.

Students requiring disability related accommodations, please contact Disability Services.

The following person has been designated to handle inquiries regarding the non-discrimination policies:

Sharon Stellato, J.D., Interim Title IX Coordinator
